CORRELATION IS NOT CAUSATION

Two things can move together without one causing the other.

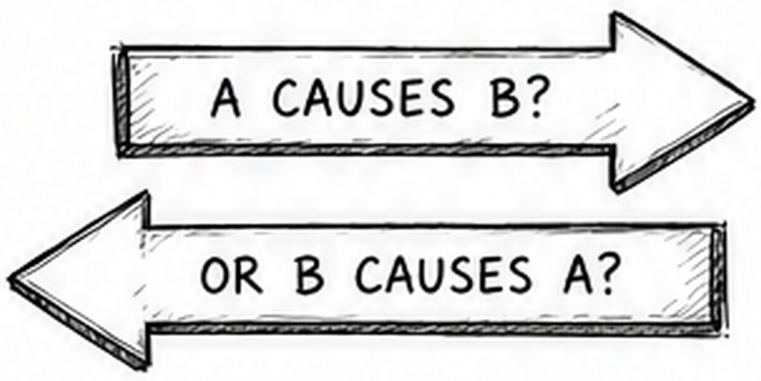

Before you say "this caused that," ask:

1

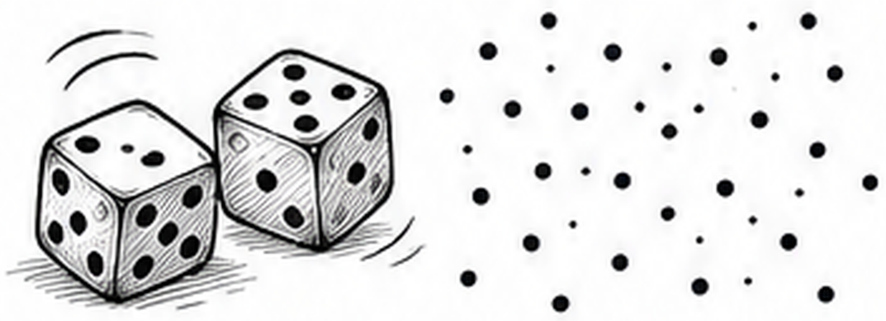

Could something else explain it?

2

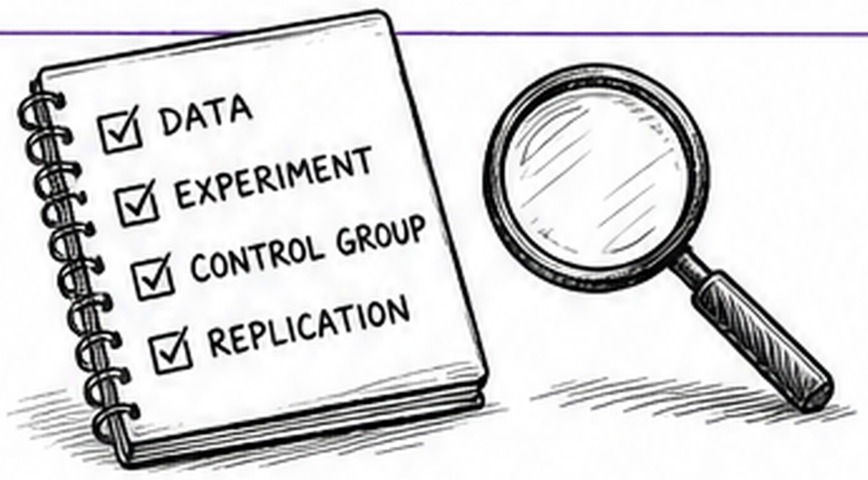

Which direction might the cause go?

3

Is it just a coincidence?

4

What evidence would prove more?

A pattern is a clue, not a conclusion.

Notice the relationship. Question the cause.

AQR | Vista PEAK Prep