

“HE WHO HAS A WHY TO LIVE FOR CAN BEAR ALMOST ANY HOW.”

FRIEDRICH NIETZSCHE

1844–1900

German philosopher, cultural critic, and poet.
Known for his deep questions about meaning, purpose, and human potential.

WHAT HE MEANS:

If you have a clear reason—your purpose, your values, your something worth fighting for—you can handle the hard days, the setbacks, and the grind.

Your WHY is your anchor.

WHAT IS YOUR WHY?

- ☐ WHAT DRIVES YOU?
- ☐ WHAT DO YOU WANT TO STAND FOR?
- ☐ WHAT IMPACT DO YOU WANT TO MAKE?

BUILD YOUR WHY. LIVE YOUR WHY.

CLARIFY IT.
Get specific about what matters most.

PURSUE IT.
Make daily choices that move you toward it.

PROTECT IT.
Guard your time, attention, and values.

SHARE IT.
Surround yourself with people who lift your why.

REFINE IT.
Your why can grow—keep it alive.

FIND YOUR WHY. LIVE IT. LET IT CARRY YOU THROUGH ANY HOW.

AQR